

elected] from eternity to salvation, everything [your every effort and entire labor] is of no avail. This occurs especially when they view their weakness and the examples of those who have not persevered [in faith to the end], but have fallen away again [from true godliness to ungodliness, and have become apostates]. 12. To this false delusion and [dangerous] thought we should oppose the following clear argument, which is sure and cannot fail... More to come in March
